What We Do -- The Lake Erie Chapter [LEC-FFI] endorses the mission of Fly Fishers International to promote and enhance the art of fly fishing by providing instructions in fly tying and fly casting; protecting water quality through on-stream projects; encouraging the catch and release philosophy, promoting camaraderie through instructional programs directed to women, men & young adults while supporting the talents and abilities of our volunteer members.

Fly Fishing & Fly-Tying Courses -- The LEC-FFI provides Beginner Fly Fishing as well as Fly Tying classes through various outlets such as The Greater Niagara Fishing & Outdoor Expo, Continuing Education programs at local High Schools, as well as requested classes at local libraries and Scout Troops. We also strive to educate the youth in our community by offering day long instruction in the art of casting, fly tying, stream entomology, and fly fishing.

Project Healing Waters -- One of our members is a Program Lead for Project Healing Waters. He leads a group of LEC-FFI volunteers that work with veterans at the VA Hospital in Batavia. They provide an opportunity for Veterans to explore and discover fly fishing. Fly tying is part of the therapy program for those vets dealing with PTSD. So, several times a month, from late fall to early spring, Project Healing Waters volunteers visit the VA hospital in Batavia and hold instructional classes on fly tying and fly casting. During the summer and early fall, opportunities are provided for Veterans to try their hand at fishing, at a variety of locations.

Our Meetings -- Opportunities are provided for our members to get together and learn how to tie flies, share wisdom, and tell fish stories about the one that got away. If you are a novice, join us for an hour before the business meeting and learn how to tie the latest seasonal pattern. Kindly bring your fly-tying equipment with you to the meeting. This includes tools, vices etc. If you don't have any of the tools necessary to tie flies, we will supply them. Not sure how to cast? We can take you outside and demonstrate the proper technique. Want a partner to go fishing with? Just ask! LEC-FFI plans fishing trips to destinations all over New York State as well as all local waters. Meetings consist of speakers who share their knowledge and expertise in Fly Fishing.

Meeting Information -- Meetings are held on the 3rd Thursday of every month at the ORVIS STORE, 4545 TRANSIT ROAD, WILLIAMSVILLE, NY, 14224, (located in the Eastern Hills Mall), beginning at 6:00 PM with fly tying, followed by a business meeting and program starting promptly at 7:00 PM. Meetings are open to the public.

Membership -- We offer a first-year free membership to all First Responders. All Military, Law Enforcement, Fire Fighters and EMT's are eligible. We have no local dues just international dues. For additional information, please contact Mike Fabian at Fabes112@gmail.com.
